Section 1. This Society shall be known as the Coshocton County Agricultural Society.

Article II – OBJECTIVE

Section 1. The objective of this Society shall be to promote and encourage Agriculture, Home Arts, Horticulture, Industry, Science and the raising of better livestock; to encourage school and junior fair exhibits, and all educational features which help to build a better community.

Article III - MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Any American Citizen of Coshocton County, Ohio, over 18 years of age may become a member of the Coshocton County Agricultural Society by having his or her name and post office address recorded with the Secretary and by paying the established price set by the directors into the treasury in any year. No person shall pay for or secure a membership for anyone other than himself. Memberships shall be placed on sale at least two weeks before old memberships expire on November 30 of each year and shall remain on sale at least 30 hours each week at a place specified by the Society. Notice of the days, hours, when memberships can be purchased shall be announced in the annual premium list and in at least one newspaper of general circulation in the county twice during the period of sale - once when they go on sale and again no less than seven days before sale is terminated but not earlier than 21 days before sale is ended.

Section 2. Memberships may be purchased at the Secretary's Office during regular scheduled office hours. Starting the day after Labor Day each year, the Secretary's Office will be open each day to sell memberships and to receive fair entries. Membership sales close at 8 p.m. the day prior to the opening of the fair.

Section 3. Membership certificates shall bear dates (day and year memberships begin and day and year memberships terminate) denoting period of membership in the society.

Section 4. A printed certificate of membership shall be issued to each member who pays the required fee and such certificate shall be issued from a book in which duplicate stubs of the same are properly filled out and preserved. All such certificates shall be numbered consecutively. No membership certificates shall be issued to corporations, organizations, partnerships or firms. Only that person whose name appears upon the membership certificate shall be considered a member of the Agricultural Society and shall have a right to vote at the annual election of directors of the society or hold office.

Section 5. By complying with the above rules, the purchaser of the membership is entitled to make an exhibit at the fair of as many articles as he may desire without further payment excepting in the livestock, agriculture displays and Grange entries.

Article IV - BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1. The Board of Directors shall consist of 18 members, who shall be elected for a term of three years and the terms so arranged that the terms of one-third of the members shall expire annually.

Section 2. The casting of votes for directors by proxies is not to be permitted.

Section 3. Any vacancy caused by death, resignation, removal from office or other causes, may be filled by the Board until the next annual election, when a director shall be elected for the unexpired term.

Section 4. If any member of the Board of Directors misses three consecutive regular meetings, the Board may declare his position vacant and name a successor to serve until the next annual election, when a director shall be elected for the unexpired term.

Article V – ELECTION

Section 1. The annual election of the board of directors shall be held at the Fair Ground from 1 to 5 p.m. on the first Saturday in November of each year.

Section 2. The said election shall be by ballot. Ballots must be clearly marked; otherwise the name will not be counted.

Section 3. Members of the Society must declare their candidacy for the office of Director of the Society by filing with the Secretary of the Society, a petition signed by 10 or more members of the Society, at least seven days before the annual election of directors is held. Only regularly nominated candidates who have met the filing requirements, and have been members for at least the current and previous year, will be eligible for election as a director.

Section 4. The term of office of the retiring Directors shall expire and that of the Directors-elect shall begin on December 1 of each year or until their successors are elected and qualified.

Section 5. The Secretary shall give notice of Directors' election for three weeks prior to holding thereof, in at least one newspaper of general circulation in the county. Said newspaper announcements

Section 6. Petitions can be obtained from the secretary of the Society.

Section 7. A list of the membership of the Society is available for inspection at the secretary's office upon the request of any resident of the county.

Section 8. The President shall appoint three judges and two clerks who are members of the Society, but are not candidates for election, to conduct the election of directors and declare the results thereof. Candidates may witness the count either personally or by proxy. The judges of elections shall have the membership roll and verify the rights of all persons to vote before issuing ballots. Voting must be done in accordance with the election laws of the State of Ohio. The clerks of election shall register the names of all persons voting and tally the count, one copy of which Register and tally sheet shall be placed on file with the secretary of the Society, the other copy shall be mailed to the Department of Agriculture of Ohio, within 10 days after the said election. Poll books and tally sheets shall be supplied by the Department of Agriculture of Ohio.

Section 9. A majority of the board of directors or any group of 25 citizens of legal voting age in the county concerned may petition the Department of Agriculture to supervise their annual election of directors. Said petition must be filed at least 14 days before the election, and shall state the reason for such request and be signed with the names and addresses of the persons making such request. Said petition, when filed with the Director of Agriculture, may cause an investigation to be made and if deemed necessary and proper, he shall assign one or more representatives of the Department of Agriculture to supervise election. In case any election results in a tie vote, the election shall be determined by the flip of a coin.

Article VI - ANNUAL MEETING OF MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. The annual meeting of the members of the Society shall be at the Secretary's Office at the fairground the third Monday of November each year following adjournment of the regularly scheduled meeting of directors which begins at 7:30 p.m.

Section 2. The officers and directors of the society shall make reports to the membership of the Society concerning the past Fair and make recommendations for the betterment of future Fairs. The members shall be given opportunity to make suggestions and recommendations for the improvement of the Society or its Fair. Such other business may be presented as may be prescribed by this constitution or as may be deemed proper by the Board of Directors.

Article VII – OFFICERS, ORGANIZATION AND MEETINGS

Section 1. There shall be a regular meeting of the retiring Board and new Board members, on the third Monday in November of each year, at which meeting the new Board shall elect a President, First Vice President, Second Vice President and Treasurer. Election of officers shall be by ballot.

Section 2. The President, First Vice-President, Second Vice-President and Treasurer, to serve a term of one year. The Secretary shall be elected for a term of not more than three years. The President, First Vice-President and Second Vice-President shall be directors. The Secretary and Treasurer are not required to be an elected director.

Section 3. Before election of officers the newly elected directors shall qualify by taking the following oath (or affirmation) before a competent authority (designated by law):

"I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support the Constitution of The United States, the Constitution of Ohio, laws of Ohio and rules and regulations of the Department of Agriculture of Ohio pertaining to agriculture societies and to the best of my ability perform the duties of Director of the Coshocton County Agricultural Society, so help me God."

Article VIII - AMENDMENTS

Section 1. Amendments to the constitution or by-laws may be proposed by:

A majority of the Board of Directors at a scheduled meeting voting in favor of placing an amendment on the ballot; or Filing a petition with the Secretary of the Society at least 14 days prior to the annual election of the Board of Directors. Said petition must set forth the proposed amendment and be signed by not less than 25 members.

Section 2. If an amendment is proposed, it shall be submitted to the membership of the Society at the annual election of the Board of Directors, or at the Annual Meeting of the Membership of the Society.

Section 3. When more than one amendment shall be submitted at the same time, they shall be so submitted as to enable the members to vote on each amendment separately.

Section 4. If the majority of the membership voting on proposed amendment shall adopt such amendment, it shall become a part of the constitution or by-laws.
